

Esther Dolgoff Bibliography

Books

The Jewish Anarchist Movement in the United States, Joseph Cohen. Translated from the Yiddish by Esther Dolgoff. Edited by Kenyon Zimmer (forthcoming).

Plays

East River View, unpublished.

Articles (in Chronological Order)

“The Civil Rights Struggle”, Views and Comments, No. 38, Pp. 4-5, May 1960.

“The Chinese Anarchist Movement by Scalapino and Yu”, Views and Comments, No. 44, Pp. 20-21, April 1963.

“The Wobs in History”, Views and Comments, No. 49, Pp. 23-24, Spring 1965.

“Our Trip to Spain”, with Sam Dolgoff, News from Libertarian Spain, V. 1, No. 5, Nov. 1977.

“A Worker Bemoans Her Fate”, Wobble, No. 13, October 1985.

Interviews

“Interview with Sam and Esther Dolgoff”, Ann Allen, Labor Oral History Project, Roosevelt University, June 15, 1972.

“Interview with Esther and Sam Dolgoff”, Doug Richardson, Black Rose, No. 2, Pp. 64-82, Spring 1975.

“Still Crazy After All These Years: Sam and Esther Dolgoff 60 Years of Anarchism”, Nhat Hong, Soil of Liberty, V. 8, No. 2, Spring 1982.

Bibliographic Note: Esther Dolgoff used the pen name, “Esther Weiner” for most of her writing until 1971 when Sam’s Bakunin anthology was published. Esther contributed many short articles for the anarchist press anonymously, the journals Vanguard and Views and Comments in particular. This bibliography is incomplete and should be considered a work in progress.